

6516208072.txt

The reason local stations don't want XM to offer traffic reports is because XM does it so much better. You have to let XM continue its traffic. It's in the public interest and will support competition--and possibly even promote better traffic reports from local stations.